

I pay my own phone bill, the banks do not. My phone is for my convenience not the banks. If the time comes that a bank does pay my phone bill, then it would have the right to call me any time they want.
Until then, leave Indiana's do not call list alone!